A poster for the Hartford Circus Fire Remembrance event. At the top, a black silhouette of a circus tent with six flags on its roof is set against a yellow background. Below the tent, the words "HARTFORD CIRCUS FIRE" are written in a large, bold, black, slightly arched font, with "REMEMBRANCE" in a similar font directly underneath. In the center, "THURSDAY, JUNE 27" is written in a smaller, black, sans-serif font. On the left side, the text "Reception 5:30-6:30 pm (Ticketed Event)" is displayed. On the right side, the text "Discussion 7:00-8:00 pm (Free Event)" is displayed.

A photograph of a book display on a table. In the background, a large heart-shaped cutout with a rainbow gradient is mounted on a clear acrylic stand. The word "PRIDE" is printed in bold black letters across the yellow stripe of the heart. In the foreground, three books are prominently displayed. The book on the left is "SHE/HE/THEY/ME" by Robyn Ryle, featuring a cover with various gender symbols. The middle book is "THE BOOK OF PRIDE: LGBTQ HEROES WHO CHANGED THE WORLD" with a rainbow brushstroke design. The book on the right is "ELLEN DEGENERES" featuring a photo of Ellen DeGeneres. A small card with a rainbow background and the word "LOVE" is partially visible at the bottom. A semi-transparent white box with text is overlaid on the bottom half of the image, and a pink "Learn More" button is at the bottom center.

HPL has numerous books on the history, people and future of the LGBTQ community. Find them all in our catalog!
